TPI Update

From the Office of Assessment, Teaching and Learning

Appeals Open – Monday 3rd October 2011

All Teaching Performance Index (TPI) submissions have been assessed and are available for review.

Checking your TPI submission:

- Login to the TPI submission tool: http://otl.curtin.edu.au/quality_teaching_learning/tpi.cfm
- Click on the "View" button listed alongside your 2011 TPI Submission
- Click on the "Open" or "Save" button in the popup box
- Scroll to the bottom of the PDF to view assessment comments and awarded points

Assessment Comments:

- Where a claim has been disallowed or changed, the Verification Team has tried to ensure that a comment explaining the change is included.

TPI Review Process (Appeals):

- TPI claimants who disagree with an assessment may lodge an appeal. Please provide the following information when lodging an appeal:
 - Claim Reference number:
 - Name:
 - Staff ID:
 - Claim Item Category:
 - Reason for the appeal:
- If you are thinking of submitting an appeal, please ensure that anything raised in the Assessment Comment is addressed.
- The review process is not an opportunity to lodge additional TPI claims, and substantial new material that was not included with the original claim will not be accepted.
- See the TPI Guidelines for information on category guidelines.

Appeals should be emailed to tpi@curtin.edu.au by cob Friday 21st October 2011.
